

ASSESSING THE OFFER

Here is a sample of the process you may use in evaluating a job offer. Remember, you will want to compare the details of any offer to what you determined were your highest and most important values from the assessment process in Module 2.

My values/priorities theme from the exercises and/or the Scientifically Validated Assessment in Module 2 (Assessing Your Needs) revealed:

The kind of work that I am most interested in and am motivated to do is:

How does this offer stack up against what surfaced as what I value most?
